Article 3
Further provisions

(1) The fee will be due on the day and in the form to be specified in Dean's decision assessing the fee for study at FAMU in a foreign language.

(2) If a student fails to pay the fee in a timely and due manner under the terms and conditions specified above, the Faculty has the right to interrupt their studies officially in accordance with Section 14(3) of the Attendance and Examination Regulations of AMU. The person whose studies have been interrupted does not have the student status during the period of interruption. The period of interruption is included in the maximum duration of study.

(3) The Rector may reduce, waive, or postpone the due date of the tuition fee for a programme taught in a foreign language based on a student's application for a review of the assessed fee and, as a rule, further to a proposal of the Dean of the Faculty at which the student is registered, taking into consideration, without limitation, the student's academic results and social situation. The application must be duly and concretely justified and documented.

Article 4
Closing provisions

(1) Further matters are governed by the current Rector’s Decree on the fees associated with study for the relevant academic year.

(2) This Decree abolishes Dean’s Decree No. 4/2024.

(3) This Decree becomes valid upon signing and takes effect on 1 October 2025.
